10/26/2016 12:19	Sarah	7304	Imagine you have control of New York City's entire arts and culture budget. What program or project would YOU fund?	Encourage diversity in hiring practices at cultural institutions including opening doors to people who are new to the city. The cultural workforce is very closed off to newcomers.
10/26/2016 12:20	Simon	10455	Imagine you have control of New York City's entire arts and culture budget. What program or project would YOU fund?	The program that resources all kinds of artists to work long term - 1 to 3 years with resident communities in NYCHA projects and low cost housing developments. Ideally projects where artists get subsidized rent to live within those communities.
10/26/2016 12:26			Imagine you have control of New York City's entire arts and culture budget. What program or project would YOU fund?	Help organizations of color--let's invest in these groups, their stories, their visions, their cultures. How to do it? Sell CIGs their buildings and start to get DCLA out of facility management business. Reallocate portion of those GOS to effort.
10/26/2016 12:27	Benjamin	11231	Imagine you have control of New York City's entire arts and culture budget. What program or project would YOU fund?	I would fund Public Works, the program from the Public Theater. I have been part of it since the beginning and in my whole career in the arts and elsewhere I have never experienced such an amazing program.
10/26/2016 12:28	Volker	11226	Imagine you have control of New York City's entire arts and culture budget. What program or project would YOU fund?	Every dollar spent in the arts returns five fold into the economy, outside of untangible results such as a peaceful and positive environments and empowerment for communities, it is economical wise to invest in the arts.

10/26/2016 12:28			Imagine you have control of New York City's entire arts and culture budget. What program or project would YOU fund?	I would distribute the funds equitably across the 5 boroughs and across cultural groups
10/26/2016 12:28	Yazmin	11221	Imagine you have control of New York City's entire arts and culture budget. What program or project would YOU fund?	I would give funds to El Puente, University Settlement, the Mayday Space and CADRE. Also, I would give funding to schools for art programs, like my daughter's school, PS 86 in BK. Furthermore, I would create a Saturday Cultural School in each boro!
10/26/2016 12:29	Sarah	7304	Imagine you have control of New York City's entire arts and culture budget. What program or project would YOU fund?	Traveling around the city is difficult for low-income and under-served people. Make arts and culture activities more accessible by expanding transportation assistance for low-income families.
10/26/2016 12:34	Sarah	7304	Imagine you have control of New York City's entire arts and culture budget. What program or project would YOU fund?	Outreach programs for low-income, underserved communities (Museums for All)
10/26/2016 18:03	Manon	10155	Imagine you have control of New York City's entire arts and culture budget. What program or project would YOU fund?	No Longer Empty because it serves all boroughs through site responsive exhibitions and educational programming that celebrate local narratives and culture
10/26/2016 18:03			Imagine you have control of New York City's entire arts and culture budget. What program or project would YOU fund?	I would include schools like Bronx Charter School for the Arts in funding since they bring arts programming to kids in Hunts Point. I wonder what other non-traditional organizations are bringing the arts to underserved communities.
10/26/2016 18:04	CJ	10010	Imagine you have control of New York City's entire arts and culture budget. What program or project would YOU fund?	I would create a small world-class "regional" museum to nurture artists BORN

11/1/2016 17:02	melissa	10306	Imagine you have control of New York City's entire arts and culture budget. What program or project would YOU fund?	I'd fund an empowerment program to provide artists the resources to start their own spaces (new galleries, theaters, studio spaces) particularly in the outer boroughs. The need for sustainable spaces led by artists is critical.
11/1/2016 17:03			Imagine you have control of New York City's entire arts and culture budget. What program or project would YOU fund?	I would require all organizations applying for grants to collaborate with at least one other organization sharing resources, space, staff, etc.
11/1/2016 17:03	Jonathan	11103	Imagine you have control of New York City's entire arts and culture budget. What program or project would YOU fund?	An invitational performing arts festival, importing performance and art from all nations represented in NYC. Exhibit diversity by showing where it comes from
11/1/2016 17:06		10462	Imagine you have control of New York City's entire arts and culture budget. What program or project would YOU fund?	I would fund only those organizations using city funding for middle class, union, or living wage jobs.
11/1/2016 17:08	Penn	10025	Imagine you have control of New York City's entire arts and culture budget. What program or project would YOU fund?	I'd support original theatre projects, which employ a wide variety of artists from different disciplines: writers, performers, musicians, visual artists, and craftspeople.
11/1/2016 17:08	Stephen	10038	Imagine you have control of New York City's entire arts and culture budget. What program or project would YOU fund?	Programs that give access to low-income and under-served NYC residents (across the 5 boroughs) to the work professional living New York based artists (theatre, dance, fine art, music, poetry, spoken word, etc.)

11/1/2016 17:10	DJ	11215	Imagine you have control of New York City's entire arts and culture budget. What program or project would YOU fund?	Build on the idNYC initiative by using the database analysis to identify areas in which memberships have not kept pace and introduce early fall late spring events in parks, and places such as Woodlawn
11/1/2016 17:10	Sarah	11231	Imagine you have control of New York City's entire arts and culture budget. What program or project would YOU fund?	I'd fund entities like Spaceworks to rent affordable space to artists in private spaces, not just city-owned buildings.
11/1/2016 17:10			Imagine you have control of New York City's entire arts and culture budget. What program or project would YOU fund?	I would put a good portion of the funding into the hands of artist collaboratives with the intent of bringing public visual art to every neighborhood.
11/1/2016 17:10	Alison	10002	Imagine you have control of New York City's entire arts and culture budget. What program or project would YOU fund?	I would fund artists to collaborate with NYCHA community centers and Tenant Associations.
11/1/2016 17:11		10033	Imagine you have control of New York City's entire arts and culture budget. What program or project would YOU fund?	An effort to build up arts groups of color and share their work with more New Yorkers. Lead the way on artist housing and workspace to keep the City affordable for artists, so they will stay here.
11/1/2016 17:11	Carlos	11219	Imagine you have control of New York City's entire arts and culture budget. What program or project would YOU fund?	I'd fund all the programs of Brazilian Council on Samba. It's bringing the BR Carnival to Bk and creating tons of jobs. braziliancouncilonsamba@gmail.com

11/14/2016 14:18	Andrew		11215 What is your dream for arts and culture in NYC?	That Art and Cultural are deemed vital in all city planning. Ex. All new construction/zoning should be judged for "cultural impact" of the local communities before they can seek approval by the Department of City Planning.
11/15/2016 14:16	melissa		10306 What is your dream for arts and culture in NYC?	To see a thriving mix of performance and art spaces, with arts of as many genres and backgrounds as possible, sharing their work with an engaged public. To see funding increase for artists and organizations across the five boroughs.
11/15/2016 14:16	Kirstin		10303 What is your dream for arts and culture in NYC?	for all residents to be within walking distance of quality cultural experiences, and for all to wish to be able to create.

11/15/2016 18:56	Debby	10021	What is your dream for arts and culture in NYC?	Mark or somehow celebrate NYC streets or neighborhoods celebrated in hip hop songs.eg Glendale Boulevard (Beastie Boys) or Linden Boulevard (Tribe Called Quest)
11/16/2016 10:33	Diane	7040	What is your dream for arts and culture in NYC?	That the artists who live here, who devote their lives to creating the vibrant cultural scene that we all love so dearly, would be paid a Fair Wage, one that allows them to live in this city with dignity. Please help, NYC, your artists are starving.
11/16/2016 15:04	Kaitlyn	10305	What is your dream for arts and culture in NYC?	That schools acknowledge that arts programs are essential to expose students to. That more art is incorporated into the transit system, that existing programs in each borough are well advertised to communities.
11/17/2016 17:33	Rex	10458	What is your dream for arts and culture in NYC?	- more organized events in Public Spaces- inclusive and easier policies to get Grants for individual or group of Artists not 501c3 registered
11/20/2016 15:26	Sergio	10040	What is your dream for arts and culture in NYC?	Every child would have access to quality art instruction and venture outside the confines of their classroom to be exposed to museums, theater and other cultural events. Culture is not a luxury...
11/20/2016 15:28	Sergio	10040	What is your dream for arts and culture in NYC?	Every child would have access to quality art instruction and venture outside the confines of their classroom to be exposed to museums, theater and other cultural events. Culture is not a luxury...

11/22/2016 8:56	Judith	11201	What is your dream for arts and culture in NYC?	I think that both city and private organizations provide wonderfully for the arts and culture in NYC and while there is scattered support for this in the NYC public schools, there needs to be more, including more use of trained professionals.
11/22/2016 11:32	Ramona	11205	What is your dream for arts and culture in NYC?	That all communities, regardless of socio-economic background, cultural identity, nationality, religion, but because of some (diversity), have easy access to art and artists, and are invited to share from their individual and diverse perspectives.
11/22/2016 12:05	Shannon	11215	What is your dream for arts and culture in NYC?	My dream for NYC is to make arts and culture a priority, with an emphasis on the importance of Green Culture (parks, botanic gardens, community gardens). We need to keep our city green and full of art.
11/22/2016 13:39	Phyllis A	11218	What is your dream for arts and culture in NYC?	That all kids growing up in NYC can take full advantage of its cultural riches.
11/22/2016 15:21				In https://twitter.com/hashtag/JamaicaNY?src=hash target="_blank" >#JamaicaNY I'd love to see a well funded public art program incl. well designed outdoor seating & plazas. https://twitter.com/hashtag/CreateNYC?src=hash target="_blank" >#CreateNYC https://twitter.com/@NYCulture target="_blank">@NYCulture

11/22/2016 16:13	lauren	11215	What kind of art or cultural activities do you want to see in public spaces?	Green Walls/Living Walls, Sculptures, Dance and Music!
11/22/2016 16:14	lauren	11215	What kind of art or cultural activities do you want to see in public spaces?	Green Walls/Living Walls, Sculptures, Dance and Music!
11/22/2016 18:32	Stephen	10026	What kind of art or cultural activities do you want to see in public spaces?	Classical Theatre - for free!
11/23/2016 13:26	Andrea	11220	What kind of art or cultural activities do you want to see in public spaces?	The kind of art that brings people together. Not exactly performative in nature but definitely didactic and interactive. Something that helps us combat the bystander effect that sometimes is easy to fall into in big cities.
11/23/2016 13:26	Sarah	11231	What kind of art or cultural activities do you want to see in public spaces?	Weird, ambitious public art. DOT is doing a phenomenal job...more from them!
11/23/2016 13:26	Melissa	10306	What kind of art or cultural activities do you want to see in public spaces?	I want to see activities that activate public spaces to make them feel inviting and open to communities. An example is the St. George Day festival on Staten Island. We open up the park (usually vacant or closed) to art and community!
11/23/2016 13:26	tamara	11220	What kind of art or cultural activities do you want to see in public spaces?	dance, music performancesinteractive art making murals/street art
11/23/2016 13:26	Jan	10009	What kind of art or cultural activities do you want to see in public spaces?	First, there should be more spaces amenable to public art. Developers are exploiting, not really developing, e.g. Essex Crossing in Manhattan, and should be required to create spaces for the arts.

11/23/2016 13:26	Stephen	10026	What kind of art or cultural activities do you want to see in public spaces?	Classical Theatre - for free!
11/26/2016 14:39	mika	11211	What kind of art or cultural activities do you want to see in public spaces?	free music events. art events for children. contemporary public art that is engaging, thoughtful and challenging
11/26/2016 18:23	Sarah Cameron	10031	What kind of art or cultural activities do you want to see in public spaces?	Temporary public art that engages the community directly by asking them to participate in one way or another. Collaborations between artists and city agencies.
11/28/2016 12:32	Kristin	11222	What kind of art or cultural activities do you want to see in public spaces?	interactive visual art events. passersby create a bit of art to take with them, or add to an ongoing collaborative work... as simple and ephemeral as chalk paint and stencils, or complex and permanent, like concrete sculpture/mosaic.
11/28/2016 14:39	malin	11225	What kind of art or cultural activities do you want to see in public spaces?	Temporary public art projects of all kinds: collaborative (between artists, city agencies, public institutions), decorative, educational, interactive, participatory, community-based, etc. And I'd like to see them off the touristy paths.
11/28/2016 19:01	Renee	11249	What kind of art or cultural activities do you want to see in public spaces?	The Metro music program is great, and the MTA's generally lax attitude towards artists performers not affiliated with that program are important. Other cities like DC lose out by being too strict. In parks, more opportunities for interactive art.

11/28/2016 19:02	Renee		11249	What kind of art or cultural activities do you want to see in public spaces?	The Metro music program is great, and the MTA's generally lax attitude towards artists performers not affiliated with that program are important. Other cities like DC lose out by being too strict. 4/3/2017 19:34	Justin	11221	What is your dream for arts and culture in NYC?	For artists to be able to maintain rent and also foster a healthy network of patrons through a community studio space that is connected with galleries, museums, the professional community. To offer many opportunities to artists and art organizations.
4/5/2017 12:30	JESSICA	11221	What is your dream for arts and culture in NYC?	incorporates more education in understanding including architecture and preservation and it is easily accessible for all

4/6/2017 1:28	Ling	11222	What is your dream for arts and culture in NYC?	Free instruments and lessons for kids. Free documentary filmmaking and stop-motion animation classes. Every art museum is free. Make it truly available to all. Support social justice panels and culture weeks (Polish heritage week, Taiwanese week,etc)

4/7/2017 10:49	Karron	10034	What is your dream for arts and culture in NYC?	That the empathic ability to walk in anothers shoes shows itself as inextricable in Business (and its deal-makers) and Government (and its policy-makers) as it does in Art (and its art-makers).
4/7/2017 17:55	Kira	11205	What is your dream for arts and culture in NYC?	That New York City be a place where it is affordable to be an artist. That the students of NYC all have the opportunity to experience the ups and downs of working through the creative process.
4/26/2017 13:15	Alvina	11223	What are the important spaces or places that bring people together in your neighborhood? Are they accessible to everyone?	Libraries! They're relatively accessible. There are many empty lots in the area that can be turned into local gardens or dog parks too.
4/27/2017 13:32	Darcel	10002	What are the important spaces or places that bring people together in your neighborhood? Are they accessible to everyone?	The East River Park Amphitheater on the Lower East Side: Our organization, LES Creative People In Action, annually presents an free, music concert with talent from, and beyond the community, for the people of the community. D. Kennedy, pres. LESCPIA
5/4/2017 23:52	Genji	10002	How do arts and culture benefit the lives of family or community members?	Arts is humanity at its best, the embodiment of freedom, joy, and expression.
5/11/2017 10:49	Pollyanna	11238	Describe your neighborhood's cultural identity in 5 words.	Friendly, Neighborly, Genuine, Compassionate, Dogs!
5/11/2017 10:58	Pamela	11375	Describe your neighborhood's cultural identity in 5 words.	a suburb in the city

5/11/2017 21:51	Ashley		10308	Describe your neighborhood's cultural identity in 5 words.	Italian, family oriented, homogeneous, sparse.
5/15/2017 15:35	Carolyn		10009-5220	Do you want to add anything?	Please post the draft plan so that it can be viewed. It is 3:30pm on May 15 and still not up on the website.
5/15/2017 16:22	Benjamin		11231	Do you want to add anything?	Is there a way to download all the recommendations at once to review them as a group?
5/15/2017 23:20	Victoria		11375	Do you want to add anything?	Financial transparency, accountability, board modelling exemplary fiduciary duty, ban ALL insider deals
5/15/2017 23:22	Victoria		11375	Do you want to add anything?	Limit ratio of exec raises to rank&file raises & to same % raise for program services
5/16/2017 0:15	Annabelle		11423	Do you want to add anything?	Start an after school enrichment program in libraries for K-12 to learn to make iOS apps for iPhones and iPads.
5/16/2017 0:15	Annabelle		11423	Do you want to add anything?	Start an after school enrichment program in libraries for K-12 to learn to make iOS apps for iPhones and iPads.
5/16/2017 9:36	Ronald		11021	Do you want to add anything?	Encourage New Yorkers to have more meaningful conversations in public spaces such as parks and POPS, as we have been doing through our pro bono voluntary organization, Conversations New York (www.conversationsnewyork.com).
5/16/2017 11:00	Marialena		11373	Do you want to add anything?	Missing is historic preservation for both architecturally, historically, socially and culturally important places and structures. These places are what our identity as a city is. These places can bring art, history and culture to life.

5/16/2017 12:50	Rose		11421	Do you want to add anything?	I think there needs to be some differentiation or definition of "cultural institution." It seemed to be interchangeable in the survey. Plus, the artists needs are different from organizations. Who are we really addressing here? Who is the priority?
5/17/2017 11:15	Nicholai		10019	Do you want to add anything?	It's imperative that you disaggregate data about Asian/Pacific Islander-American communities, because there are enormous socioeconomic differences between them. The many levels of inequality among API-Americans is staggering.
5/17/2017 12:17	Randi		11105	Do you want to add anything?	More direct funding for small organizations with limited budget. Revamping of the application process so truly under funded organizations have a chance at funding.
5/17/2017 22:24	Elizabeth		10454	Do you want to add anything?	Prioritize building and strengthening networks of arts organizations, artists, and other cultural stakeholders. Incentivize the success of these networks.
5/18/2017 13:55	Christopher	10036-1308		Do you want to add anything?	The City must use its considerable financial leverage to ensure that artists can make a living in NYC. Require publicly supported orgs.
5/19/2017 11:02	Elsbeth		11225	Do you want to add anything?	Science is rightly included in many of the proposal headings, as science, environmental, and history programming/education are key cultural assets, but these areas are missing from the specific (numbered) proposals, which focus narrowly on art.

5/23/2017 9:57	Heather	11225	Do you want to add anything?	Overall, in my opinion, the most important issues are arts education in the schools and affordability for artists and communities.
5/23/2017 9:58	Heather	11225	Do you want to add anything?	Overall, in my opinion, the most important issues are arts education in the schools and affordability for artists and communities.
5/23/2017 11:50	K	11373	Do you want to add anything?	Preserve the historical value of Elmhurst and surrounding areas in Queens. Elmhurst and Queens are rich in culture currently and bygone eras. The historical homes and institutions must be preserved!
5/23/2017 12:27	Anne Marie	10306	Do you want to add anything?	More capital funding and grants need to allocated to cultural institutions and living artists in Staten Island! Staten Island seems to be the forgotten borough again.
5/23/2017 16:28	J. Montana	10304	Do you want to add anything?	We definitely need more creative art programs in school. I believe bringing in working artist to teach would be helpful. In addition Staten Island artist need more recognition.
5/23/2017 17:35	Zola	10468	Do you want to add anything?	Can black people get FUNDED FOR ONCE PLEASE. OUR NEIGHBORHOODS HAVE NOTHING CULTURALLY REWARDING WHATSOEVER, not even 1 gallery nor events and thats just an injustice that we are ignored. We have the ideas and just begging to be given a chance, thanx

5/24/2017 0:32	leona	11101	Do you want to add anything?	These polls are not accessible to blind & visually impaired people using Internet Explorer or Safari with common screenreaders Jaws & VoiceOver: example of how blind & visually impaired people struggle to have a voice. We are artists & writers too!
5/24/2017 8:26	Anne	1462	Do you want to add anything?	As an emerging artist - great post - how about you have a "library" for art supplies - set up in a public place like a library - get sponsors - fill it with artist materials) - could be borrowed on-site - so artists could learn and experiment
5/24/2017 8:34	Audra	11365	Do you want to add anything?	Preserve the historical homes of Queens, which are being torn down and replaced by McMansions (boo!).
5/24/2017 13:42	x	10017	Do you want to add anything?	What is missing is that NYC
5/24/2017 14:43	Juan	11373	Do you want to add anything?	NYC deserves strong historical preservation in neighborhoods like Elmhurst, Queens. This plan lacks the critical need to include awareness, education and meaningful engagement of NYers with our city's rich cultural history and architecture.
5/24/2017 17:38	Caroline	11968	Do you want to add anything?	Many of the poll options seem to involve creating new DCLA services or programs. I think it would be more effective to pass more money directly to grantees.
5/24/2017 20:20	Francesca	11357	Do you want to add anything?	"Neighborhood Character" should also include, to maintain and engage the history of neighborhoods and historic preservation to retain neighborhood character and history.

5/25/2017 12:32	Anthony	11379	Do you want to add anything?	Surprisingly under "Neighborhood Character" it doesn't include to maintain, engage and educate the history of neighborhoods and promote historic preservation to retain neighborhood character
5/25/2017 12:42	Maddalena	11373	Do you want to add anything?	Lacking historic preservation that will help retain and teach about NYC history, neighborhood character
5/25/2017 23:51	Xenia	11377	Do you want to add anything?	I'm inspired by Naturally Occurring Creative Districts. As a civil servant PoC with a BFA, would be great to do a similar exercise with city agencies to recognize under utilized natural allies to help amplify arts
5/25/2017 23:59	Xenia	11377	Do you want to add anything?	It was exciting to see arts and private development in the survey. I believe the City of Calgary incorporates %Art in their planning... if developers incorporate public art they get extra square footage.
5/26/2017 0:06	Xenia	11377	Do you want to add anything?	We have a concentration of top Art and Design Colleges in NYC but strangely enough they are also amongst the most expensive schools in the USA. A real access issue which saddens me greatly.
5/26/2017 0:14	Xenia	11377	Do you want to add anything?	Americans for the Arts, Public Art Network has regional chapters. Surprisingly with the wealth of private, public, non-profits and individuals, NYC public arts has not formed a group.
5/26/2017 0:24	Xenia	11377	Do you want to add anything?	%Art - there is an opportunity to update the outdated implementation guidelines with the new changes with the local laws.

5/26/2017 0:32	Xenia		11377	Do you want to add anything?	%Art updated local laws - To cultivate the city's public art applicant pools, require DDC to post opportunities, active and completed projects on its website and provide resources for artists to learn and apply for commissions.
5/26/2017 1:12	Xenia		11377	Do you want to add anything?	I'm a civil servant with an arts degree and am sensitive to the city's conflict of interest policies. I have pretty much stopped practicing art in NYC to reduce any appearance of COI.
5/26/2017 1:16	Xenia		11377	Do you want to add anything?	Equity and Arts admin professional development (personal story) I am a first generation fil-am, native new yorker, Queens resident public art middle manager. I have not been promoted for 12 years... all my managers above me are caucasian.
5/26/2017 9:21	Diane Harris		10038	Do you want to add anything?	The marine character and history of the South Street Seaport and its wonderful museum must be preserved! Tall ships, YES!
5/26/2017 11:12	Janet		10301	Do you want to add anything?	South Street Seaport should be preserved and restored as a living embodiment of New York's maritime cultural heritage.
5/26/2017 11:23	Michael		10009	Do you want to add anything?	South Street Seaport Museum
5/26/2017 11:25	K		10163	Do you want to add anything?	Manhattan's waterfront and the South Street Seaport are intrinsic parts of New York's history, cultural life and vitality.

5/26/2017 12:47	Guy	11215	Do you want to add anything?	Create a legal definition of 'cultural districts' that actually defends cultural institutions from being displaced, e.g. zoning, property tax, or other protections
5/26/2017 15:15	Brittany	10024	Do you want to add anything?	The South Street Seaport is one of the most special places in the city. The history and culture should be preserved.
5/26/2017 22:38	Mary Ann	11201	Do you want to add anything?	I have been going to the South Street Seaport Museum for many years. I believe that historical places should be valued and saved. The sea is an integral part of NYCs history and should be preserved.
5/27/2017 16:05	Beth	10065	Do you want to add anything?	South Street Seaport Museum embodies the spirit of our forefathers - freedom, independence, commerce, equality - spirit that built our city, state, and country. It must be preserved!
5/29/2017 14:04	Evelyn	11354	Do you want to add anything?	The Corona East Elmhurst Historic Preservation Society looks forward to Create NYC identifying, embracing and assisting ours and like societies in preserving, promoting and protecting the rich foundational cultures with all community residents.
5/30/2017 14:56	Wendy	10002	Do you want to add anything?	Green Culture is left out, but is critical to our daily life and future. We need to support citizen designers and create green culture spaces to increase resiliency!

5/30/2017 15:08	Bruce	11375	Do you want to add anything?	Queens Top Concern -- "Promote diversity and collaboration through art and culture" -- What We Heard says little about collaboration, and about the benefits that occur when diverse groups work towards a common purpose.
5/30/2017 20:46	Mary	10035	Do you want to add anything?	NYC must use its considerable financial leverage to make sure that artists can make a living here. The city should require publicly supported organizations and venues to pay fair wages to performers.
5/30/2017 23:11	David	10025	Do you want to add anything?	Preserve the South Street Seaport Historic District: the ships on the waterfront, the Museum, and those fabled streets that take us all into another time. I don't think there is another traditional maritime center that is so much a part of its city
5/30/2017 23:11	David	10025	Do you want to add anything?	Preserve the South Street Seaport Historic District: the ships on the waterfront, the Museum, and those fabled streets that take us all into another time. I don't think there is another traditional maritime center that is so much a part of its city
5/31/2017 9:14	Katherine	11412	Do you want to add anything?	Create NYC is in unique position to insure that leadership (including boards) understand, represent and practice inclusion/equity. It should be an agreement signed any partnership arrangements. Institutional diversity should reflect City diversity.

5/31/2017 10:50	Jae	10012	Do you want to add anything?	Explore potential to merge efforts among affordable housing advocates, affordable commercial real estate for artists advocates, small businesses and historic preservation advocates.
5/31/2017 13:20	Andrea	11206	Do you want to add anything?	Require W.A.G.E. certification for DCA funding recipients and work with non-profits to develop realistic dollar-to-outcome goal guidelines for philanthropic organizations and individuals. Increase long-term support of locally integrated cultural orgs
5/31/2017 13:52	Joanna	10022	Do you want to add anything?	DCLA should launch an ongoing public engagement process with the final draft of the plan. Community feedback on advancement towards identified recommendations, initiatives, and priorities could be incorporated into required biennial progress reports.
5/31/2017 14:12	Richard	10019	Do you want to add anything?	NY institutions must lead on educating the public on climate change, including their influential boards. This should be a condition required by NYCultural Affairs, because the institutions themselves depend on the continued viability of the city.
5/31/2017 17:18	Danielle	10454	Do you want to add anything?	In the Bronx, assess cultural assets: find a commonality of purpose
5/31/2017 17:18	Danielle	10454	Do you want to add anything?	revive something like CETA; tie the arts to workforce development

5/31/2017 17:34	Xenia	11377	Do you want to add anything?	Decentralize the percent for art program. Perhaps similar to PAIR, empower city agencies to start art programs and consider creative responses to their particular mission statements.
5/31/2017 18:18	Monxo	10454	Do you want to add anything?	Community Land Trust are THE central piece of the puzzle for equity in arts&culture in NYC
5/31/2017 18:20	Aisha	11221	Do you want to add anything?	Push schools to do artist residencies that focus on apprenticeship as a form of Art Ed. If Coltrane was alive you would NOT have him teach students to play scales. Youth miss out when residencies focus on basic skills instead of artistic exploration.
5/31/2017 18:45	alida	10029	Do you want to add anything?	Re artists, issue is affordable live/work, patronage, exhibit at less than40-60%, arts edu & scholar/internships
5/31/2017 22:18	Rachel	11238	Do you want to add anything?	This method of gaining public input is inadequate. To leave only 250 characters for individuals--artists--to express themselves, and the arbitrary assignment of /-s is a profoundly limited way to express opinions.
5/31/2017 22:47	Michael	10016	Do you want to add anything?	The South Street Seaport Historic District and the South Street Seaport Museum are treasures from the past which must be funded, protected and supported as a NYC priority
5/31/2017 22:47	Michael	10016	Do you want to add anything?	The South Street Seaport Historic District and the South Street Seaport Museum are treasures from the past which must be funded, protected and supported as a NYC priority

5/31/2017 22:58	Carey	10454	Do you want to add anything?	Grass roots arts scenes, their artists and culture workers, do not need capacity building. Their skills are in place and they are doing the most effective work on the planet in making our world more just and beautiful. They just need more funding!
6/1/2017 13:27	Margaret	11372	Do you want to add anything to the plan proposals?	The relevant city agency must be responsible for providing restrooms
