Findings

- Since 2010, DCLA has allocated 1,731 capital grants worth $1.3 billion to cultural organizations.

- On average, DCLA allocates close to $160 million in capital grants to cultural organizations each year, with an average grant of $738,240.

- CIG’s received 593 grants worth approximately $648 million and Non CIG’s received 1,138 grants worth $630 million.

- After growing each year between 2012 and 2014, capital grant funding stagnated between 2015 and 2017.
BJH Advisors

DCLA Capital Grant Analysis by Category

March, 2017

---

--- | --- | --- | --- | --- | ---
Performance | Music, Dance, Theater | 446 | 11% | $457,489 | $204,040,000
Multidisciplinary | Performance and Non-Performance Multidisciplinary Organizations | 535 | 26% | $736,450 | $394,001,000
Science | Botanical, Zoo, Science | 178 | 100% | $1,246,169 | $221,818,000
Humanities | Humanities, Literature, Folk Art | 49 | 41% | $363,939 | $17,833,000
Visual Arts/Film/Design | Visual Arts, New Media, Architecture, | 231 | 87% | $792,714 | $183,117,000
Museum | Museums | 291 | 53% | $882,595 | $256,835,000

---

Average DCLA Capital Grant by Category
FY 2010 - 2017

---

Findings

- Since 2010, multidisciplinary cultural organizations received 535 grants worth $394 million, far more than any other category.
- Organizations focused on “Humanities” received only 49 grants worth approximately $18 million, far less than any other category.
- 100% of capital funding to organizations classified as “science” and 87% of funding to organizations classified as “Visual Arts/Film/Design” were allocated to CIG’s.
Findings

- Since 2010, DCLA has awarded organizations in Manhattan 901 grants worth almost $631 million, more than all of the other boroughs combined.

- Staten Island has received 120 grants worth almost $86 million, by far the least amount of funding.

- Over 80 percent of capital funding to the Bronx, Staten Island, and Queens were awarded to CIG's.

Findings

- Since 2010, DCLA has awarded the Bronx 150 capital grants worth approximately $161 million.

- Capital grant awards to organizations in the Bronx peaked in fiscal year 2013, with close to $56 million in allocations.

- CIG’s in the Bronx were awarded 81 percent of all capital grants.
Findings

- Since 2010, organizations in Brooklyn were awarded 312 grants worth almost $217 million in capital funding.

- Funding to organizations in Brooklyn trended upwards between fiscal year 2010 and 2014.

- As compared to other boroughs, funding awarded to CIG’s and Non CIG’s is evenly split. However, the average allocation is larger for CIG’s.

Findings

- Since 2010, organizations in Manhattan have been awarded 900 grants worth approximately $631 million in funding.

- Allocations peaked in FY 2014, with approximately $156 million in DCLA grant allocations.

- Non CIG’s were awarded 65 percent of all capital funding in Manhattan.

- Average grant sizes for CIG’s has steadily increased since fiscal year 2015.
Findings

- Since fiscal year 2010, cultural organizations in Queens have received approximately 244 grants worth almost $138 million.

- Funding allocations to Queens peaked in fiscal year 2017, with $27 million in funding allocated to Queens that year.

- CIG’s in Queens were awarded close to 80 percent of all capital funding.

Findings

- Since fiscal year 2010, organizations in Staten Island were awarded 120 grants worth approximately $86 million.

- CIG’s in Staten Island were awarded almost 90 percent of all capital funding.